

CCRI-OECD Multistakeholder Dialogue

Learning about innovative governance approaches from CCRI Fellows

Date: 12 May 2025, 13:30-15:30 (online)

Registration link

Time	Agenda item
13:30	Opening and welcome by Lucie Blondel, CCRI policy officer DG RTD European Commission by Astrid Hannes & Daniel Gehrt, CCRI Coordination and Support Office (CCRI CSO)
13:40	Reflections on governance for a local circular economy: presentation of the OECD Circular Economy in Cities and Regions Programme's key findings by Ander Eizaguirre, Policy Analyst OECD
13:55	Roundtable discussion with CCRI beneficiary cities and regions: Breaking the barriers to circular economy governance: Actionable Insights – Tips, Tricks, and Tactics moderated by Astrid Hannes & Daniel Gehrt, CCRI Coordination and Support Office <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Central Macedonia (Kyriaki Kissa, Regional Development Fund of Central Macedonia)• Berlin (Benjamin Bongardt, Head of Unit Circular Economy and Resource Efficiency, Senate of Berlin)• Strasbourg (Fanni Tamara Angyual, Development of the building sector - City and Eurometropolis of Strasbourg)• Møre and Romsdal County Council (Solveig Stornes, Advisor at the Section for Societal Development)• Zuid-Holland (Tim De Vrijer & Maaïke Sonderen, Zuid-Holland) Followed by Q&A with the audience: How do these factors align with your experiences or observations in similar contexts?
14:35	How to empower cities and regions to promote the Circular Economy at local and regional level? Guided and interactive discussion about the policy recommendations Short presentation by Daniel Gehrt, CCRI Coordination and Support Office (CCRI CSO) and Ander Eizaguirre, OECD followed by a dialogue with the CCRI Fellows and the audience on the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Create a multilevel governance approach that clearly defines the roles and responsibilities of different political levels in developing and implementing circular economy policies.• Oblige regions and Member States to elaborate CE-related strategies and set clear targets.• Create awareness and enhance skills at the level of national and regional authorities regarding the concept and needs of the CE.
15.20	Next steps and closing remarks (CCRI-CSO) by Astrid Hannes & Daniel Gehrt, CCRI Coordination and Support Office (CCRI CSO)
15.30	End of the Dialogue